Jaspers Surge to Sixth Straight MAAC Tournament

The Manhattan College baseball team has secured its sixth consecutive MAAC Tournament bid, and enters the 2008 Championships looking for the program's second MAAC title in the last three seasons. The Jaspers made their first MAAC Tournament appearance in 2003, and have advanced to the championship round in three of the last five seasons. Manhattan earned its first league title in 2006 under the direction of head coach Kevin Leighton during his inaugural season at the helm.

Jaspers Success In NCAA Tournament

In 2006, the Manhattan College baseball team advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history after cruising through the MAAC Tournament. The Jaspers notched three straight wins, the first coming over #3 Rider, before back-to-back victories against #1 LeMoyne to earn a spot in the 64-team NCAA field.

Manhattan was sent to Lincoln, Neb. for an opening round contest with top-seeded and host school Nebraska on June 2, 2006. After a grueling battle with Cornhuskers' starter and current New York Yankees' reliever Joba Chamberlain, the Jaspers escaped with a 4-1 upset. Manhattan's Chris Cody delivered a complete game pitching effort, while Matt Rizzotti and John Fitzpatrick blasted back-to-back home runs to secure the victory.

Manhattan versus the Tournament Field

#1 Canisius (0-0 MAAC Tournament)

Manhattan dropped two of its three regular-season contests with top-seeded Canisius. On April 26, the Jaspers were swept in their doubleheader falling 9-8 and 6-2 in Buffalo. Despite the sluggish start to the series, the squad responded the next day with a 20-8 rout of the Golden Griffins behind the solid pitching of freshman left-hander Dan Forman. Manhattan's 20-run scoring output marked the highest of the season. Freshman third baseman Chad Salem blasted two home runs during Manhattan's sole victory at Canisius, and drove in a team-high six RBIs. Eric Nieto, Kevin Nieto and Ryan Masters each tallied five hits over the three game set. Canisius' red-shirt freshman Shane Davis pitched effectively, throwing a complete game effort in the second contest, while allowing just two runs over seven innings of work.

#3 Siena (0-1 MAAC Tournament)

The Jaspers earned a series victory over Siena during the regular-season, winning two of their three contests at Van Cortlandt Park. In game one, the Saints rallied behind first baseman Rick Seltzer's two home run, eight RBI performance for a 16-10 victory on April 6. Manhattan responded with a 10-3 win in game two, and a 7-0 victory in the rubber match. Jaspers' right-hander Brian Pendergast allowed just three hits and two earned runs in a complete game effort for the win in game two, while freshman Dan Forman spun seven scoreless innings, allowed just two hits and struck out seven leading to the game three victory. Sophomore outfielder Kevin Nieto shined in the series going 5-for-12 (.417) from the plate, including three doubles. He also drove in five RBIs. Jasper infielders Chad Salem and Ruben Perez also contributed five RBIs over the three games. Perez blasted a home run and a double, while Salem connected on two doubles. Freshman outfielder Mark Onorati was the most consistent as he went 4-for-9 (.444) from the plate, scored five runs and knocked in two RBIs.

#4 Rider (1-0 MAAC Tournament)

Manhattan won its first conference game of the season on March 21 in game one of a doubleheader at Rider. The Jaspers erupted for a season-high 20 runs in the winning effort. In game two, Broncs' starter Jimmer Kennedy slowed Manhattan down allowing just one earned run over 6.1 innings helping Rider to a 4-1 victory. Then in the rubber match, the Jaspers rallied behind starting pitcher Dan Forman for a 7-3 win. Forman was strong through seven innings striking out seven, allowing just four hits and no earned runs. Jaspers' senior catcher Dom Lombardi hit a blazing .700 (7-for-10) during the series, including three doubles and a triple. He also scored six runs, drove in three RBIs and harbored a 1.200 slugging percentage. Freshman Austin Sheffield, a product of Augusta, Ga., went .583 (7-for-12) from the plate over three starts at first base. Kevin Nieto complemented the overall performance with a .462 (6-for-13) batting average, .769 on base percentage and four RBIs.

Jaspers Reach 30-Wins; A Landmark Season

The Manhattan College baseball team embarked on its third consecutive 30-win season under the direction of third year head coach Kevin Leighton. The feat marked the first time in program history a team reached this landmark in back-to-back-to-back years, and just the fifth time a team won 30 or more games (1903, 2002, 2006, 2007, 2008).

Forman Fearless In Postseason

Jaspers' freshman ace Dan Forman makes his MAAC Tournament debut, but is no stranger to pitching in the postseason. Forman, a product of St. Francis Prep in Brooklyn, led the Terriers last spring to their first CHSAA "A" city championship since 1996 tossing a no-hitter in the title game. St. Francis Prep went on to defeat Regis High School 8-0. In the semifinals, Forman twirled a one-hit ballgame in a victory over Archbishop Molloy. Current Manhattan teammate Mike McCann notched the sole hit that afternoon to break up Forman's no-hit bid.

E-Nieto Lifts Jaspers to Championship In 2006; Looks to Bring Title Back to Riverdale In 2008

Manhattan College senior outfielder Eric Nieto returns to the MAAC Championships for the fourth consecutive season with two title game appearances under his belt. In 2006, Nieto was a key element to the Jaspers' championship run as he blasted one of the most memorable home runs in tournament history. After taking game one from Rider, 5-0, the Jaspers were paired up with archrival LeMoyne in the winners' bracket on day two. With the contest locked at 2-2, Nieto delivered a solo home run in the eighth inning to propel Manhattan into the championship round. The rest was history as the Jaspers went on to its first MAAC title.

Strong at Home, Even on the Road, Perfect at Neutral Sites

The Jaspers compiled an impressive 13-2-1 [.843] record at Van Cortlandt Park this season and wrapped up the home campaign with 10 straight wins. Manhattan posted an even 16-16 [.500] mark on the road during the regular-season, and was a perfect 2-0 [1.000] at neutral sites.

Leighton Hits the Century Mark

Third year head coach Kevin Leighton tallied his 100th career coaching win in a 16-3 victory at Fairfield on the final day of the regular-season. Leighton reached the century mark the quickest in Manhattan College baseball history. At just 28 years of age, Leighton stands among the youngest head coaches in Division I history to achieve this feat.

'Dominant' Dom Lombardi

Manhattan College fifth-year senior Dom Lombardi has brought the necessary veteran leadership to this Jasper squad during the 2008 campaign. Lombardi has seen most action this season behind the plate, but also has experienced quality time in the hot corner. Lombardi enters the MAAC Championships harboring a .354 batting average which ranks fifth overall in the conference.

Lombardi currently leads the league and ranks in the top-20 of all Division I with a .505 on base percentage. To date, Lombardi has tallied 56 hits, scored 47 runs, notched 13 doubles and three triples.

Nieto Brothers Ink Names in Jasper Record Book

Eric and Kevin Nieto have engraved their names in the Manhattan College baseball record book this season. Earlier this year, Eric became just the seventh player in program history to reach the coveted 200-hit milestone. He enters the post season tied for first all-time in career hits (216) with John Fitzpatrick '06.

Eric is also the program's at bats leader with 750, ranks second in career runs (164) and is tied for third all-time with seven triples.

Kevin Nieto is quickly on his way to take over the lead in many of the offensive statistical categories. In just his second year with the program, Nieto became the all-time triples leader posting his 10th on May 11th during Manhattan's home win over Saint Peter's. Kevin carries 110 career hits into the MAAC Championships.

Jaspers Embark on Program's First Regular-Season Title

Manhattan won its final 10 conference games of the season to make its claim for a share the program's first MAAC Regular-Season title. The Jaspers swept its final three conference series, earning wins over Marist, Saint Peter's and Fairfield to be crowned co-champions with top-seeded Canisius. Both squads posted a 19-5 league mark, but Manhattan was granted the #2 seed as a result of the MAAC tie breaker policy.

Salem and Onorati Power Jaspers

Jasper freshmen standouts Chad Salem and Mark Onorati have made a name for themselves in their first seasons in Riverdale. Salem blasted nine home runs during the regular-season, and drove in a league-best 50 RBIs. In addition, he ranks fourth in the program's single season record book for RBIs. Onorati has also delivered a phenomenal rookie debut as he jacked seven homers in the regular-season, scored 60 runs and posted 14 doubles. Onorati has been solid defensively as he harbors a .989 fielding percentage, with just one error, over 48 games in the outfield. Additionally, he successfully stole 10 bases.

Menaces on the Base Path

Manhattan College brothers Eric and Kevin Nieto stand among the top base stealing threats in the MAAC. The duo ranks third and fourth in the conference for this statistical category. Kevin is a perfect 21-for-21 in stealing situations, while Eric is 16-for-21. Eric is the Manhattan College baseball program's all-time leading base stealer tallying 87 over his collegiate career. In 2006, Eric set a Jaspers' single season record with 38 steals.

Senior Success

The Jaspers graduate the winningest class in program history. During their tenure, the 2008 seniors class has won 127 games to date, while setting singles season win records in 2006, and then again in 2007. This talented group has participated in the MAAC Tournament each year during their time at Manhattan, and advanced to the championship round in 2006 and 2007. In 2006, they helped bring the first MAAC Baseball Championship to Riverdale.

What's a Jasper?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served at the College in the late 19th century.

One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan College baseball games while also directing the team itself.

During one particularly warm and humid day when Manhattan College was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitans, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy as Manhattan came to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called time-out and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed.

Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.
